I. GENERAL

The appropriate Planning application forms must be submitted to the Planning Office, together with the required fees and the specific forms, checklists (see separate instruction sheet) and/or other materials that are required for each particular type of application. When a Subdivision or Site Plan is involved, the applicant may submit it simultaneously with the Use Variance Application, or wait until the variance is granted; the Zoning Board generally refers Subdivision and Site Plan Applications, which are submitted to it in connection with use Variances, to the Application Review Committee for its recommendations, but the Zoning Board must grant final approval.

The following types of applications shall be referred to the Planning Board;

- a) Conceptual Reviews of proposed Subdivisions and/or Site Plans;

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.
