the

Culinary Institute of America & “Springwood” Home of FDR

Wednesday, April 25, 2012 ~ 8am to 7pm

We return to Hyde Park, NY to partake in the extraordinary cuisine of the American Bounty Restaurant located on the campus of the famed Culinary Institute of America.

When we arrive, there will be time to browse and shop both the CIA's gift shop and the Apple Pie Bakery (no tour of the CIA this time folks). Our luncheon menu includes American Bounty Cobb salad, braised beef short ribs with sautéed spinach, caramelized shallots, and garlic whipped potatoes followed by apple cobbler topped with vanilla ice cream. After lunch, we travel to “Springwood” the home of Franklin D. Roosevelt located on the banks of the Hudson River just minutes from the CIA. We will have time to spend in the Visitors Center before our one hour guided tour that will present the fascinating life story of Franklin D. Roosevelt, our longest serving president.

Cost is $80/person ($72 for Hopewell Township residents) and includes transportation, luncheon, admission & tour of FDR's Home. Trip departs from Independence Park promptly at 8:00am. Please arrive by 7:45am
