- h. Proposal that the Environmental Commission hold its June meeting in-person at the Township municipal building, as well as propose in-person meetings every second month thereafter.

- a. As discussed by the Commission members, due to increasing volume of COVID-19 infections in the state, in-person meetings can be held upon recommendation of the municipal health officer, Dawn Marling, regarding the current transmission rates and safety to hold such meetings.
 - b. Dawn advised that at this time it is reasonably safe to hold meetings in person in the Court Room, as it is of sufficient size and is equipped with a HEPA purifier and enhanced air ventilation.
 - c. Dawn Marling is also planning to attend this coming meeting to provide further guidance and answer any remaining questions.
 - d. However, meetings must either be conducted exclusively in-person or exclusively via Zoom due to equipment and coordination limitations. On this basis, a quorum of EC members must provide prior confirmation to attend in-person to hold in-person meetings.
- i. Mowing of native plants and No-mow initiatives, such as <http://flutterbymeadows.com/so-much-for-no-mow-may/> - Further discussion and determination of any further action.
