January Programs

Health and Happiness Fair: Friday, January 27, 11:00am to 1:00pm at the Hopewell Township Municipal Building, 201 Washington Crossing Pennington Road, Titusville. Our yearly senior fairs are back! Come explore some programs Senior Services and Hopewell Valley have to offer! We will have groups from the different exercise classes, Hopewell Township Police, Emergency Services, the Hopewell Valley Food Pantry, Capital Health, and many more. Enjoy the lunch offered by Brandywine! Please also bring a donation to the Mobile Food Pantry.

Creative Well-Being: Tuesdays, January 10—February 28, 1:00pm-2:00pm at the Hopewell Township Municipal Building. Join us for this fun innovative exercise class that focuses not only on movement but mindfulness and creativity. Shirin blends movement and playfulness into the sessions drawing from her dance & yoga background as well as other creative influences that positively affect one's wellbeing. Register by contacting Senior Services, 609-537-0236 or seniorservices@hopewelltp.org

Adult Craft: Peace Bracelets: Friday, January 20, 10:00 am at the Mercer County Library-Hopewell Branch, 245 Pennington Titusville Rd, Pennington. Beading jewelry can be a fun and (surprisingly) relaxing experience. Join us at the Hopewell Branch to create a bracelet with beautiful wooden beads, complemented with a peace symbol charm. All materials will be provided. Please email hopeprogs@mcl.org or call 609.737.2610 to register; space is limited.

Practicing Mindfulness: Wednesday, January 25, 10:30 am at the Mercer County Library-Hopewell Branch, 245 Pennington Titusville Rd, Pennington. Practicing mindfulness — experiencing the present moment without judgment — can help you manage stress and improve your quality of life. Attend this informative session led by Carolyn Schindewolf, health educator with Penn Medicine Princeton Health Community Wellness, to learn how mindfulness can help reduce or stop brain chatter and habitual reactions, improve mood and energy, increase focus and mental clarity, and deepen your enjoyment and appreciation of life. Please email hopeprogs@mcl.org or call 609.737.2610 to register.

Knitting Club: Senior Services is looking to restart the Knotting Club. Please call or email Senior Services if you are interested, 609-537-0236 or seniorservices@hopewelltp.org. If assembled, the club would meet the first Wednesday of the month at the Hopewell Valley Senior Center.
